

The Homework Club Behaviour Contract

The Homework Club Rules:

1. Use kind words
2. Look after the equipment and property
3. Keep your hands and feet to yourself
4. Listen to the adult

If you follow the rules you will be rewarded with dollars on the Dollar Chart. There will be a shop at The Homework Club in week 10 where you can spend your dollars and get some treats!

If you break the rules the following will apply:

1. A verbal warning may be given to the younger children
2. If behaviour continues, lines or an apology letter will be written
3. If behaviour continues, second set of lines/apology letter
4. If behaviour continues, third set of lines/apology letter
5. If three sets of lines/apology letters have been written in one week, then a serious incident form will be completed.
6. Parents will be informed and an exclusion period of one week from the HWC will be arranged.
7. If three serious incident forms have been written, you will be permanently excluded from The HWC.
8. If any child leaves the group or intentionally harms another child then this will automatically be recorded as a serious incident.

Please remember that every day is a fresh start at The Homework Club. The staff are always available to talk to you and we all want you to make the right choices.

You are the boss of yourself!! Remember to make the right choice...
